Word From The General Manager- Liz

Hi Everyone,

Welcome to the August Newsletter. The year is flying. We launched our new Small Business with the "Baa Ram Brew" Coffee Trailer. We have a new employee Reggie and he works Monday, Wednesday and Fridays. Current employee Chloe who use to work at the Paper back Café at Goulburn Mulwaree Library dusted off her barista certificates and she is working Tuesdays and Thursday. It open to the public and we would love to see you at Endeavour Monday to Friday 9-3pm in the car park (67 Oxley st)

Community Building Partnership GRANT

Endeavour was ecstatic to get a call from Wendy Tuckerman MP office on Wednesday 31.7.25 to let us know we were successful with our grant . The partnership program awards grants for shovel ready community infrastructure projects that deliver positive social, environmental and recreational outcomes.

Kristen's 50th Luncheon

Old and New staff, employees and friends celebrated Kristen 50th at the Soldier's Club Here are some of the pics of a great luncheon!

Visiting Mic and Margaret O'Neill at THE CHALLENGE

Some staff and employees did a tour of the new accommodation, day program, medical suites of the Challenge Foundation on Mary Mounts road. This facility is top of the range and we have some interested employees wanting to move out of the family home and live with like minded people. Thanks Mic and Marg for showing us around. www.cfgoulburn.com.au
