Word From The General Manager- Liz McKeon

SEPTEMBER 2025

Hi Everyone, As we turn the page toward the close of another year, it's astonishing to realise that this is already our 9th Edition Newsletter for 2025. Three months from now, the festive spirit of Christmas will be upon us, wrapping up a year that has been vibrant, challenging, and rich with community connections and milestones. Each edition of our newsletter stands as a testament to the dedication and resilience of our members, volunteers, and supporters, and this issue is no exception.

We're thrilled to announce the Goulburn Community Showbag in collaboration with the Goulburn Show. With the generous support of the Show's organisers, the Goulburn Community Showbag will debut at next year's Goulburn Show, packed with surprises and treasures that showcase the spirit, talent, and generosity of our region.

The showbag is more than just a collection of goodies; it is a symbol of partnership and pride. It serves as a tangible reminder of the strength that comes when local businesses, community organisations, and residents work together toward a shared goal. In the months ahead, we'll be reaching out to members, local businesses, and supporters to contribute ideas and items for inclusion. If you have suggestions or would like to collaborate, please get in touch—we'd love for the showbag to reflect our diverse and vibrant community.

Goulburn Women In Business

It was a pleasure to attend the Monthly Goulburn Women in Business with my colleague Mel. The guest speaker was the Federal Minister for Eden-Monaro and Emergency Management Kristy McBain MP. She shared insights into her journey into politics. Goulburn boasts strong female leadership at every government level, with one third of local representation being women.

"THERE IS NO LIMIT TO WHAT WE, AS WOMEN, CAN ACCOMPLISH."

— MICHELLE GRAMA

Endeavour Industries is grateful for Women and we are and fortunate to have former politician and Human Rights Advocate Pru Goward on our Board, inspiring future leaders and fostering empowerment within our community.

A Bold Coffee Adventure: Lessons Learned and Community Shared

This past month, our team embarked on a fresh journey—a “trying out” of new horizons with the much-anticipated launch of our coffee trailer.

However, every adventure comes with its lessons. Despite our best efforts, we found that foot traffic in our chosen location did not meet the levels we had hoped for .

Friday, 12th September, will mark the final day of our coffee trailer venture. We invite everyone in the community to come down, grab a coffee, and enjoy a $2 toastie . Your support and feedback are the ingredients that make endeavours like these meaningful, and we thank you wholeheartedly for every visit, smile, and word of encouragement.

We would like to thank Reggie for taking a leap of faith and working for Endeavour for the last 6 weeks. We wish him well for the future.

Renos at Oxley St

Thank You for Transforming the Entrance at Endeavour

We recently faced a challenge at the front of Endeavour after an old tree had caused the concrete to buckle and become unsightly. The need for new concrete was clear, but restoring the area to its former glory—and perhaps even surpassing it—was no small task.

That's why we are especially grateful to Evan Goodfellow, who proved to be nothing short of brilliant throughout the process. From the initial consultation to the finishing touches, Evan's expertise, attention to detail, and can-do attitude ensured that the new concrete was laid to perfection. Not only did Evan help coordinate the work efficiently, but their genuine care for the space and commitment to quality truly made a difference. Thanks again.
