Word From The Chairperson– Peter Walker

Hello all,
October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month– a time to honour survivors, support those in treatment, and promote early detection through regular screening.
I hope Goulburn Businesses support Endeavour and the Goulburn show “Community Show bag”.

Word From The General Manager- Liz McKeon

Hey Everyone, In honour of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, our Newsletter has gone pink and we will be having a morning tea on Thursday 30th October with our staff and Employees. If anyone else would like to join us it's a gold coin donation and it will kick off at 10.30am. Please RSVP to the office by 28/10/25

Endeavour is super excited to work in collaboration with The Goulburn Show to get Local Business to contribute to the Goulburn Show Community Showbag. Expression of Interest to scan the QR code or ring the office for more information and ask for Mel

What's been Happening at Oxley st this month

- This month we said farewell to Jess in the Coffee Van and wished her all the best at recycling.
- Crissy In Laundry scored his dream job on the farm and we had a cake and singalong
- Mischelle—Manager of Small Business won the footy tipping comp. Congratulations!

Are you OK?

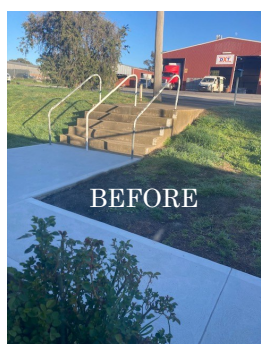

Thursday 10th September was Are you ok day and The GM and employee Fay attended the Goulburn Women in Business and the discussion was on Time Management. Everyone was given a yellow flower in recognition of are you Ok day.
